ROCK PORT

HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

This is Rock Port High. Here, each day, we come together to work and to study and to learn to live together as men ought to live. Here, we learn to respect knowledge and competence, and here we learn to love wisdom. In the road ahead, may the memories of these wonderful years when we "traveled through the Halls of Rock Port" be kept fresh and bright in the pages of this book.

Dear Mr. Dalrymple

Words cannot express our deep appreciation for the help and advice you have given us during our years at R. P. V. S. Not only in our Class projects, but in our individual problems, you have, at some time or another given individual attention to almost all of us, with an air of friendliness and impartiality. For all those "great ideas" you will always be remembered by us.

It is in an effort to thank you for all you have done, that we dedicate our yearbook to you, Mr. Dalrymple.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On a bright, sunny day in the year 1947, Miss Anna Proudfit stood in the doorway and counted twenty-four shining, young noses. Those who started on the long, winding stairway were: Jerry Bennington, Kay Greer, Jay Gore, Okie Davis, Rita Garst, Edna Lininger, Keith Ottman, Robert Howell, Kenton Krusor, Howard Bunton, Garry King, Mark Luhrs, Dick Salfrank, Bobby Taylor, Sharon Fahseler, Jerrianne Stites, Tommy Stanton, Portia Oswald, Janice Tudor, Don Hudson, Jimmy Hudson, Floyd Strange, Jerry Johnston, and Judy McCoy.

During our second grade, we found that we had several new classmates to borrow paper from. They were: Arthur Cook, Janice Mather, Judy Maness, Billy Nelson, Wilma Stanford, and Martha Graham. Miss Velma Inbody, our teacher that year, learned quickly not to turn her back on the class. Probably the most useful piece of knowledge we gained was how to tell time. We all learned to read a watch except Kenton Krusor, and he learned to read a sun dial.

In the third grade we all took our turn sitting in the hall, and during the recess we played a great game called "Capture." Those who decided this game was too rough and left us were: Arthur Cook, Keith Ottmann, Floyd Strange, Wilma Stanford, Martha Graham, and Judy McCoy. Our teacher was the very pretty, Miss Faye Stevens. Several of the boys proposed to her daily.

When Miss Royston, our fourth grade teacher, was calling roll for the first time, she found that there were two new faces. They were Priscilla Bowers and Carole Lininger. During the summer Don and Jimmy Hudson and Billie Nelson moved away.

As we entered the fifth grade room and greeted our teacher, Mrs. Nina Thomas, we found that Jimmy Smith and Margaret Huff had heard of our class and decided to join us. Although our multiplication tables were difficult to learn, we all made it through that year without one person leaving our merry band.

When Mrs. Salfrank, our sixth grade teacher seated us alphabetically, we found that three students were missing: Judy Maness, Jimmy Smith, and Portia Oswald. We had also gained five: Jeanie Welch, Kenneth Burgess, Myrtle Webster, and Lennis Million.

The reorganization of 1953 brought in several new students to join us in the seventh grade: Wilma Stanford, Dan Boatman, Mary Brown, Marjorie Cook, Mary Lou Grubb, Carl Herron, Don Ingram, Connie Lauman, Roselea Patton, Sherry Pebley, Marvin Rosenbohm, Darlene Schmidt, Joyce Shandy, Betty Jo Thomas, Betty Turner, Shirley Perry, Jimmy Simons, Annette Bennington, Jane Cooper, Melvin Grubb, Peggy Harger, Alberta Herron, Judy Pebley, Virginia Roop, Beverly Schroeder, Max Thomas, and Cecil Cook. Because of our superior leadership, we had the best safety patrol system EVER seen in Rock Port. Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. Shaw were given the privilege of teaching us.

The entire student body was grieved to learn that during the summer we lost one of our students. She was Edna Mae Lininger. Mrs. Hills and Mrs. Linville saw that we all graduated from the eighth grade plus three others that happened to be passing by. They were Virginia Boulden, Dick Asbury, and Portia Oswald.

As we started our ninth step to the top, we added to our list, Jerry Welch. We were all quite proud of ourselves that year, for we had four girls and four boys letter in sports.

On our tenth step we stopped for a while, and out of thousands of out-of-state applications, we admitted only two. They were Norma Jean Esser and Janice Schnegelberger. This was a slow year, but most of us made it.

After hearing about all the work involved in giving a Junior-Senior banquet, Richard Asbury, Virginia Boulden, Priscilla Bowers, Peggy Harger, Max Thomas, and Myrtle Webster gave up and left our flock. With all this loss of man-power, we gladly welcomed Nancy King to our ranks. This was a booming year and went surprisingly fast. Our Play "The Perfect Idiot" and oriental banquet were tremendous successes and everyone enjoyed them.

Now that the Senior Play, "Nuts in May," is over, we are preparing to take the last long step - that of graduation. Those who have been with us all twelve years are: Jerry Bennington, Howard Bunton, Okie Davis, Rita Garst, Jay Gore, Kay Greer, Robert Howell, Garry King, Kenton Krusor, Mark Luhrs, Dick Salfrank, Sharon Stanton, Jerrianne Stites, and Janice Tudor. We were sorry to have lost Judy and Sherry Pebley and Joyce Shandy at the beginning of the year. We were exceptionally happy to have Shirley Perry come back and take this big step with us, since she had started with us earlier.

This is our history. We would, at this time, like to forgive our teachers for all they have done to us these past twelve years. Although there could be thousands of pages written, and many incidents related about our class, we MUST be modest.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Time is a strange thing. If mortal man is ever able to conquer this intangible thing, our world will, no doubt, be greatly changed. There are, upon the face of our earth, a few gifted individuals who have the ability to bridge this gap in time. They possess the skill of projecting themselves into the past, or into the future. I know one such individual! I have given my solemn pledge not to disclose this person's identity, yet at this time I wish to present to you a revelation of what this talented genius revealed to me.

A short while ago, whether it was last week, or last month doesn't matter, I had the pleasure of sharing an hour with this philosopher. I put to him the question that has been on the minds of the members of the senior class for quite some time. "Where will the members of the senior class of Rock Port Route 2 High School be, fifteen years hence?" He gazed into my eyes, and related the following information to me.

One of the young ladies in the class of '59 will be a top chorus girl in the famous Copa Cabana Night Club. She will be known as "bubbles," the toast of the coast. Prior to her fame and fortune, this individual was known as DARLENE SCHMIDT. JANICE TUDOR, known for her prowess on the basketball court, will forsake an athletic career for the field of art. Janice will be successful in this endeavor. She will achieve her fame with the brush by painting "7 up" on pop bottles. Although JERRY BENNINGTON was no brain in school, his eye for women will land him the big job of President, of Playboy Magazine. Even as a high school student, his interests were along this line. DAN BOATMAN will attend P.C.I.T. (Phelps City Institute of Technology). He will be a track man of great fame, gaining his greatest fame as being the fastest man in the high jump. ANNETTE BENNINGTON aspired to become a mathematician. However, she will toss aside this technical career to some extent. She will settle for the job of cashier in the Downtowner Cafe in Rock Port. KENTON KRUSOR had dreams of being a star quarter-back on some football team. He will be a star quarter-back for The San Quenten Spoofhounds. TOMMIE STANTON will star for Barnum and Bailey as "Two Ton Tommie," the fat woman. CARL HERRON, who had planned to be a farmer, will become a lawyer, and in his most famous case, he will defend PORTIA OSWALD, charged with the murder of her third husband, MARK LUHRS. Carl will win the case and promptly become Portia's fourth husband. It will be rumored that Mark actually was murdered by Portia, who was furious because he was "keeping company" with BETTY JO THOMAS, who married into the Rockefeller family. (That is, the Rockefeller family of Nishnabotna.) HOWARD BUNTON will found the "Bunton Summer Camp" for girls. This will be a non-profit organization; as far as money is concerned. BETTY TURNER will run the largest guppy ranch in existence, The Circle T. BEVERLY SCHROEDER has planned to operate a string of super markets. She will almost achieve her goal. She will own almost all the fishing shacks in Brownville, Nebraska. JAY GORE has planned to go into an occupation which will place him near water. Jay will work for the New York Department of Sanitation, commonly called the sewer. KAY GREER will be side tracked from her nursing career and become the owner and head dealer of the Golden Nugget Gambling Hall in Las Vegas. JANICE SCHNEGELBERGER will not realize her ambition to become a secretary. She will be the 1968 weight lifting champion--for the Russians. ROBERT HOWELL, the top student in our class, recently applied for a chauffeur's license. He will be successful in his ambition to become a truck driver. Robert will drive a truck for the famous Ottman Trucking Line. The owner of the line is not KEITH OTTMANN, from our class, but his little brother James. Keith will be elected Street Commissioner of Langdon. CONNIE LAUMANN, one of the more timid souls in our class, will become the greatest saleswoman in history. She will attain her greatest triumph by selling refrigerators to the Alaskan Eskimos. HELEN DAVIS' hidden athletic ability will finally shine as she becomes the world's champion tiddly-winks player, winning the final round of the play-off with a broken tiddle. JANE COOPER will become a world famous fan-dancer at CAROLE LININGER'S fan shop at the corner of Calhoun and Main in Rock Port. VIRGINIA ROOP always wanted to be a world famous designer. Leave out the word famous and you have her future occupation, world designer. She will design globes at the Fairfax Globe Factory. NORMA JEAN ESSER will not become an everyday housewife as she had hoped. Instead she will be an espionage agent. She will sell Espionage egg-beaters. LENNIS MILLION will become a top performer in the circus. He will be able to spin his tops faster than anybody else. A budding young artist, MARVIN ROSENBOHM, will express his talent by painting the yellow line down the middle of the new super highway. Although JERRIANNE STITES grades weren't too good in school, she will win her fame and fortune as a snake charmer at Don's Club in Las Vagus. Don's club will be owned and operated by none other than DON INGRAM, gentleman farmer from Rock Port, who, while sinking a water well on the south forty, struck oil. MARJORIE COOK will enter the diplomatic corp. She will be assigned as Rock Port's ambassador of good will to Tarkio. A very tough assignment. DICK SALFRANK, I predict, will become county sheriff and will be instrumental in breaking up Gun Moll GARST'S famous "Spider Gang." GARY KING will become a big rock and roll singer preforming under the name of Gary, King of the Boppers. Fearless NANCY KING will attain great acclamation as a bull fighter. ALBERTA HERRON and SHIRLEY PERRY will collaborate to become the most famous burglar twosome in the country. Their downfall will finally come; however, when they get caught trying to break into the Y.M.C.A. at Omaha. MELVIN GRUBB will become the heavy weight champion of the world. He will weigh a fantastic 550 pounds. I predice that JERRY WELCH will become a test pilot. He will test pilot lights in gas heaters. At our interview, I had mixed emotions of empathy and nostalgia. Possibly you do not believe that an individual has the ability to predice the future. If, however, you are one of the imaginative individuals that make up our world, you may follow the activities of this group and share with me the future that is theirs.

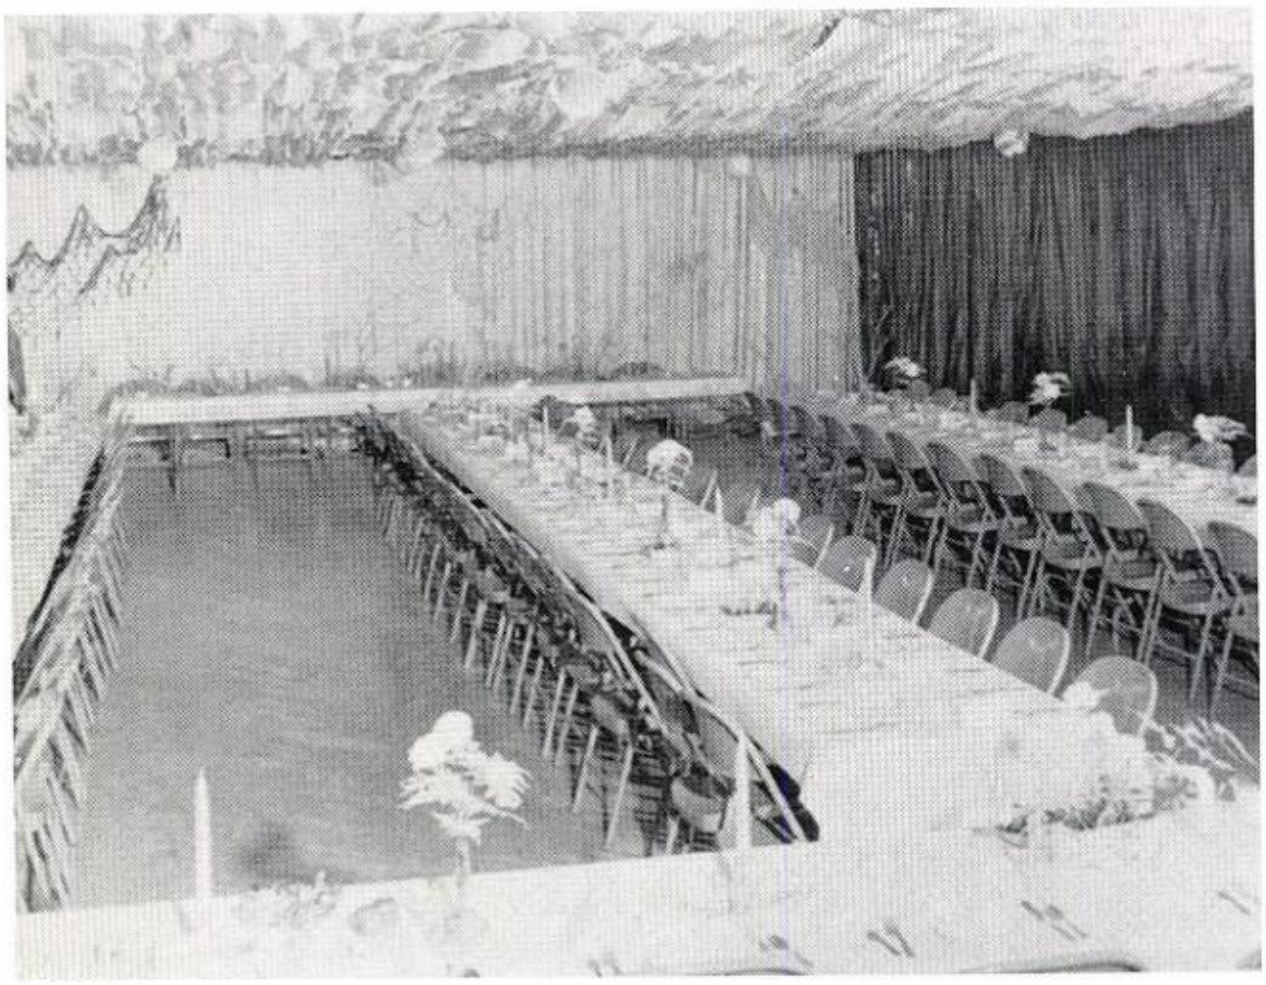
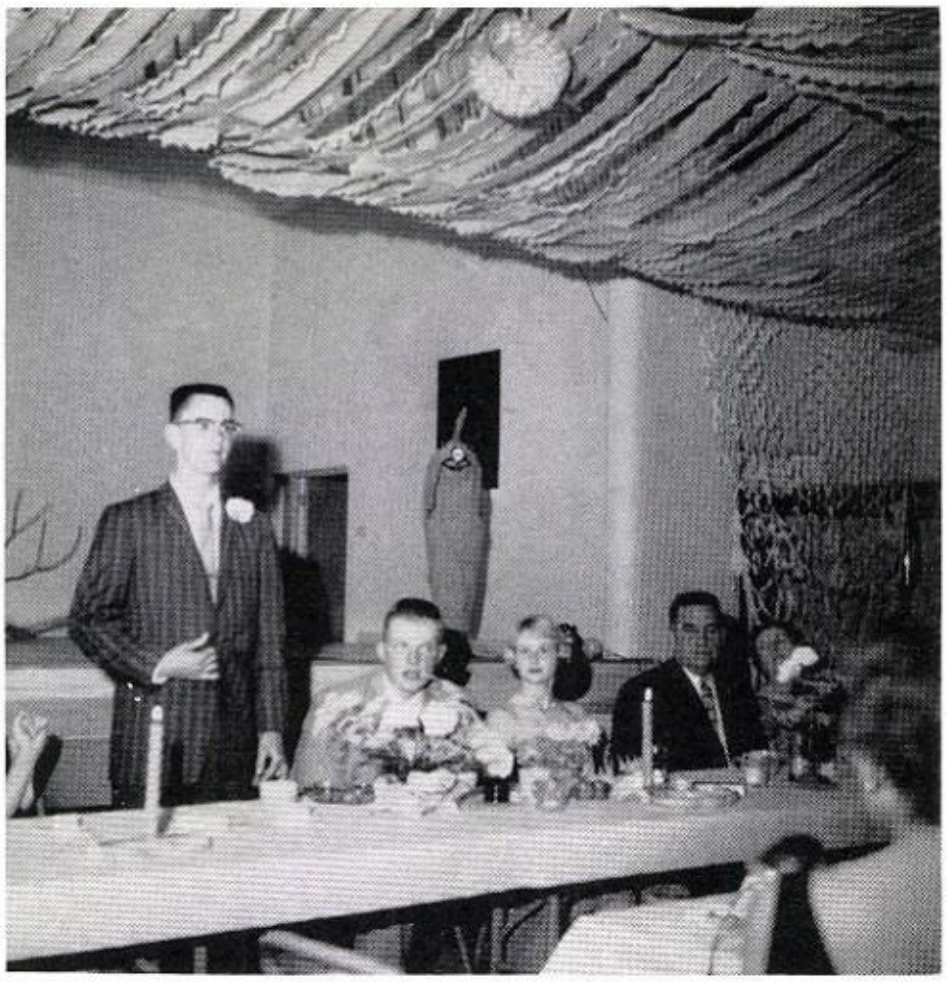
Juniors Stage Lavish Banquet for Seniors



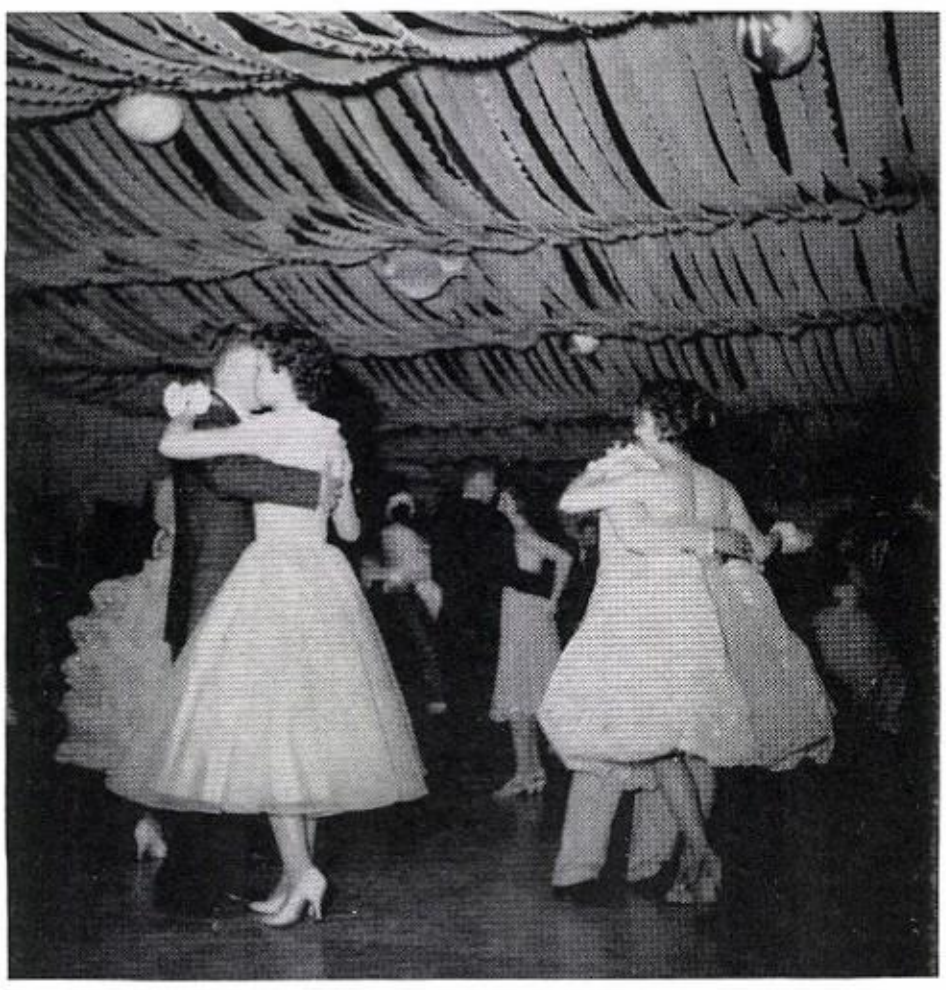
Carrying out the theme, tables were white covered with aqua candles in driftwood holders, white carnations and coral in aqua vases and small bags of sea shells spaced down the long tables. Mints and nuts were at each place in white china treasure chests trimmed with gold, as favors. The hosts made the place cards using small sea shells. Napkins were embossed with "Paradise of the Deep" and memory booklets in keeping with the theme, were at each plate.

"The Dolphin," a sunken ship, full of treasure chests and kegs, was festooned with rope, rippling crepe paper and fish. Chests displaying pieces of eight and jewels of all description were open to view. Punch was served from the kegs during the dancing.

Sophomore girls and boys chosen to serve the banquet by the juniors wore pirate costumes. Girls had on black leotards, shorts, weskits and white blouses, silver buckled belts and pirate hats. Black pants and vests, white shirts, gay belts and large pirate hats were worn by the boys.



The menu was shrimp cocktail, sea weed salad, scalloped clam, fresh ocean cucumbers, white caps with breakers, sliced sea biscuit, mermaids delight and coffee. Junior mothers prepared the food furnished by the class. Pirates served the courses from an underwater cave near "The Dolphin."



Dancing to Bobby Dreher's college band finished the memorable evening after the banquet was cleared away. Mr. and Mrs. Curt Gaffney and Laurence Knepper were the sponsors guiding the execution of the original and unusual banquet for 115 guests.

Dominating the room was a realistic aquarium the length of the west wall, with blue lights behind dark blue cellophane, paper fish of all sizes and descriptions moving lanquidly in and out among the coral and driftwood draped with seaweed. The fish were of many hues and were brightened with sequins. A sandy beach lined with sea shells projected the watery wall into the room.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. HINDERLITER, Superintendent

Everyone associated with Rock Port Route 2 High School has a common goal. This goal is the gaining of knowledge or skill. In a word, it is learning. Learning is guiding, challenging, conditioning and stimulating students toward purposeful activity.

Learning is not an activity that is confined to the classroom. Each and every organization in the school must be justified as being educationally sound.

Education does not have a tangible price tag. It does, however, produce a product. In our case, the product is the high school graduate. The development of this product is contingent upon the home, the community and the school. These agencies, working hand in hand, place the finished product on the market. The quality of the product will be judged in years to come, after the elements of life have had an opportunity to give it the supreme test.

We are wagering our tomorrows on the products of today.

MR. DALRYMPLE, Principal

Larry Stoner, Ralph Bennington, Harold Zach, Donald Sawyer, Scamman, and Harold Boatman.

ROCK PORT, Mo. — Rock Port, the scourge of the Northwest Missouri football conference, ran up its victory streak to five Friday night with a 40-0 rout of Tarkio.

The victory marks the fifth straight game in which Rock Port has kept opponents from crossing its goal while rolling up 234 points.

Jay Gore led the Rock Port onslaught with touchdowns in the first and final periods. His first came on a two-yard plunge early in the opening frame and his final was a nine-yard gallop at the start of the fourth period.

Kenton Krusor picked up a touchdown in the first period on a three-yard plunge and caught a pass from Howard Bunton in the second period good for 45 yards and a touchdown.

Jerry Bennington scored a touchdown in the third period on a two-yard plunge and accounted for two of four extra points.

The final touchdown came late in the fourth period when Ron Thompson climaxed a 55-yard drive with a 14-yard end run for paydirt.

Rock Port's victory leaves it in a two-way tie for the conference lead with Maryville which racked up Mound City last night, 40-12.

This year, the Pep Club experienced one of its best years. During the football season we sprang into action. Our money-making project was selling booster pins for the football homecoming. We were also in charge of the Holiday Basketball Tournament stands, which proved to be very profitable. In addition, we sponsored the Basketball Homecoming.

The aim of the Pep Club is to give moral and vocal support to our teams and to cheer them on to victory.

The High School Chorus has been very active during the 1958-59 school year. After much practicing the Chorus presented a Christmas Cantata. With the Cantata over, practice started for the spring contests. The Chorus took "Nocturne" and "We Hold These Truths" to contest at Tarkio and Maryville, receiving a II rating at both places. The Chorus finished the year in fine order with a Choral Concert.

There were many things which contributed to the betterment of the Chorus this year. The new robes were certainly an asset to the appearance of the group. A few of the members were fortunate to have been able to attend a choral clinic at Peru State Teachers College under the direction of Mr. Daniel Moe, of the University of Denver. The quality of the group's singing was undoubtedly improved, as many of the members took voice lessons.

Our band also represented our school with an exchange assembly at Tarkio High School.

This put us up to the time of working on our contest pieces, which were, "March De Concert," and "Prelude and Fugue in D Minor." At Tarkio, as well as Maryville, we received "two" ratings.

After contests were all over, we played a variety of songs, and later picked out specific ones for our spring concert, which brought an end to our years' activities. The concert was given on May 15 and was a big success with Howard Bunton and Portia Oswald doing the "Charleston" as an added bit of entertainment.

For the Rock Port High School band, this proved to be a most successful school year, with several changes in our band being made, and with a considerable amount of improvement.

Not long after school began we started preparing for our winter concert, as well as getting ready for Tarkio's homecoming. Here, we received first place.

Again this year, we sponsored a magazine sales as a money making project. With the money from this, we were able to purchase ten new steel music racks and a new alto clarinet, which is being played by Karen Hays.

The Rock Port High School Dance Band, in the second year of organization, had a very prosperous and enjoyable year. The addition of the string bass to the rhythm section greatly added to its ability to "swing out."

Our Future Farmers of America Chapter has had one of its best years this year under the leadership of Jerry Welch.

Big events of the year have been the Barnwarming with the F. H. A. Girls, the Parents and Son Banquet, the "Green Hand" initiation and the recreation nights in the school gym during the winter.

Lloyd Megli received second high award in leadership training of 135 boys at our state camp last summer (1958).

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council has had a very busy schedule, as usual, this year. The first and largest undertaking was the planning of football homecoming and parade. This always proves to be a very challenging task, but they came through with flying colors.

The next undertaking was the scheduling of the exchange assemblies with the other schools in this area. This, too, was most profitable to the school as the assemblies provide the opportunity to make new friends and renew old friendships (maybe lost in a football game).

Toward the latter part of the school year, they sponsored a barbecue on the playground for all the townsfolk. After the barbecue, everyone danced to the music of a dance band from Syracuse, Nebraska.

All in all, the members of the student council feel that they have had an enjoyable time providing the school with the guidance it needs.

These young ladies have worked hard keeping the books in order, the library neat, and the study hall bulletin board decorated. This year they formed a club, entered a float in the homecoming parade, and recataloged the library with the help of Mrs. Salfrank. We owe them a big "thank you" for their help and service during the year.
